Clashes over demotion
The demotion of Francisco to the rank of major is a subject of controversy. The Air Force has stated that the demotion was necessary due to a lack of merit. However, Francisco's supporters argue that the demotion is too harsh and that he should be given a chance to prove himself. The Air Force has responded by stating that the demotion was based on a thorough review of Francisco's record.

Misconduct charges
The demotion of Francisco is also a result of charges of misconduct. It is alleged that Francisco was involved in a series of incidents that led to the demotion. The Air Force has stated that the demotion was a necessary consequence of the misconduct. However, Francisco's supporters argue that the charges are unfounded and that the demotion is unjust.

By Christine E. Aguero

MANILA (Philippine Daily Inquirer) — Bishop Jaime Sin, O.S.A., has issued a warning to the public that if he or his wife, Isabel, are harassed, it could lead to public disorder.

The bishop, who is 80 years old, said he and his wife have been receiving threats from various groups, including the New People's Army (NPA), the Communist Party of the Philippines (CPP), and the National Democratic Front (NDF).

He said that if he or his wife are killed, it could lead to public disorder, as the people would lose their faith in the government and the church.

Congressmen hurl sounds of fury over jueteng raps

By Christine E. Aguero

MANILA (Philippine Daily Inquirer) — Congressmen have expressed their anger over the results of a recent survey on jueteng, a popular underground gambling game.

The survey, conducted by a private firm, found that jueteng is still widespread in the Philippines, despite the government's efforts to ban it.

Congressmen have expressed their anger over the results of the survey, saying that the government is not doing enough to ban jueteng.

They said that the government should take more action to ban jueteng, such as increasing the number of police officers and the number of courts.

The survey also found that jueteng is still popular among the poor, who see it as a way to make money.
